

FIRST EVER RESIDENTIAL COURSE IN AFRICA

ASSOCIATE DEGREE IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

BUILDING FOUNDATION PILLARS FOR KINGDOM LIVING

ON-FIELD TRAINING FOR THE END-TIME HARVEST

FROM THE CHANCELLOR'S DESK

Heartiest congratulations! If you are reading through this brochure, it tells me that you are seriously considering your destiny, calling, and purpose in life. Joining this course is the best decision you will make in your life that will prepare you to fulfill your God-ordained destiny by going to the Last Days Prophetic Training College (LDPTC).

I want to welcome you into a unique online learning experience. As you review this brochure our courses and degree programs are designed to be practical, academic, prophetic, and biblically sound, local church oriented, and focused on equipping believers to minister the Word of God with power and excellence for service in the Kingdom of God in the last days.

Our mission at LDPTC is to prepare believers to seek the deep things of God and hunger for tangible encounters with God. We desire that you gain the necessary training and education that will benefit you as you prepare yourselves for the end times.

I am convinced that many of God's people thirst and hunger for a deeper experiential knowledge of the Lord Jesus and His Word, but due to circumstances beyond their control are unable to take part in the traditional classroom setting. God has called LDPTC to be a ministry tool for these dear ones so that they may "feast" upon His Word, learn of Him, be taught by Him, be trained, and be sent out to do the works of God.

At LDPTC, we train the remnant Army of God to be strong and mighty. Strong in the Word and mighty in deeds—works.

LDPTC is the school that trains eagles to soar!

Let me encourage you to consider being taught, trained, and mentored by LDPTC!

With love and blessings,

Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj
Executive Chancellor

WHY LDPTC?

LDPTC stands at the forefront of an end-time call: to prepare a prophetic company before the Lord Jesus comes – a formidable Army of God's faithful eagles, mighty and strong.

The eagle symbolizes God's power, protection, renewal, and judgment. The LORD's people will be anointed with His strength, wisdom, and a fearless Spirit for His purposes in the end times.

The college's purpose is to educate, train, and equip God's last days army, empowering them to lead lives that are consecrated, yielded and submitted to the Holy Spirit. Like how Daniel and his friends, and the disciples of Jesus were prepared prior to their ministries, you too will be prepared as the end-time bride of Christ, to stand firm and claim the victory that has already been won on the cross.

EDUCATING THE SIMPLE PEOPLE

Are you a minister? Are you a housewife? Or a marketplace professional? A street evangelist? Or an odd job laborer? LDPTC is committed to educating the simple people, preparing them for ministry in their everyday lives. Many full-time pastors and evangelists have also been blessed by the teachings at LDPTC, making them effective ministers for Christ.

TRAINING THE DEDICATED PEOPLE

Do you have a burden for souls? Do you feel like you can do more for the Kingdom of God? The teachings in the Associate Degree in Biblical Studies course will train you to shed your fears and shortcomings, preparing you to be a dedicated servant for the Master.

EQUIPPING THE CALLED PEOPLE

Have you received a call from the Lord to serve Him? Are you dedicated to ensure that you fulfill your call? Make your calling sure and prepare yourself to be used powerfully through the teachings and experiences shared by our worldwide lineup of lecturers.
